AAA HONORS OUTSTANDING SCHOOL SAFETY PATROLLERS

Fifteenth annual Safety Patrol Hall of Fame 2012-2013 dinner

VIRGINIA BEACH, Va., (June 6, 2013) – AAA Tidewater Virginia will honor ten outstanding students at the 15th annual AAA Tidewater Safety Patrol Hall of Fame. The awards will be given at a dinner and recognition event on Friday, June 7th at the Lake Wright Hotel in Norfolk, Virginia.

AAA has been a proud sponsor of the AAA School Safety Patrol™ for over 90 years. Since the first AAA School Safety Patrol™ was formed locally, in Norfolk in 1930, AAA Tidewater Virginia has sought to recognize Safety Patrol members for their hard work and exceptional service. Each year AAA inducts students into the Safety Patrol Hall of Fame based on their safety knowledge and job performance.

This year 15 students were nominated from 10 area schools which include the greater Hampton Roads and Eastern shore areas. These students will be recognized with a $50 dollar Gift Card, a framed Certificate of Achievement and will be awarded tickets to a movie of their choice.

AAA congratulates the 2012-2013 Safety Patrol Hall of Fame Winners and all of the students who participated in the Safety Patrol Program this year. The AAA School Safety Patrol™ program is active in 149 schools with over 3,487 students participating this year.

The ten students inducted into the Safety Patrol Hall of Fame of 2012-2013 are:

Miss Sadira from Cesar Tarrent Elementary in Hampton, VA
Miss Caitlyn Goyet from Green Run Elementary in Virginia Beach, VA
Miss Trinity Peat from Green Run Elementary in Virginia Beach, VA
